Dear Mike,

I'm sending Sidney Cohen a copy of the correspondence without any letter from me. I've heard nothing from him.

These records appear to be bound by stapling and other means into volumes of various sizes, some small. I've not examined any. I've opened the cartons to look for an inventory on the top of one. No more and I found none. I'm asking for one. They'll stay in the cartons until I can get a student to come and place them first in a file folder and then in a file cabinet. They'll fill one, too.

$1,435 is lots of money! I put a lead into the National Enquirer, telling them I've not read these records and recommending two things: that they hire you to go over the records for them and that there is a Los Angeles story that has not come out.

My best contact there is abroad for at least three weeks. Rod is on other assignments. He got married Friday and was shipped to Colorado on a story on Monday. Sic transit gloria marriage/honeymoon.

Hope your girl is healing well.

Best, HW 3/1/78
